Jan 19th, 2007 I lost my most precious son in a car accident. He was 22, had the whole world ahead of him. He loved life, his parents, his family, his girlfriend and all who knew him. He died instantly, for God didn't want him to suffer. I try every day to get thru these hard days without him...and it is very tuff. But, I know he'd want me to continue and survive with him in my heart.He was a wonderful man, had a enormous heart, a huge amount of friends and was loved by many. The tribute/funeral was overwhelming with friends and relatives. I love him so! AND-as speak, I know he's saying, "I'm gonna miss 'em--lookie there, another bite! I love you Benny!!! Love Ma!

Ben, you've gotten to meet your name-saked family, my father Grandpa Ben, and your dad's brother Uncle Duane. We know you're spirit and joy will astound all whom greet you there. They are all wonderful and will take good care of you, so you can take good care of me. There isn't a moment throughout the day that you don't touch my heart in someway, shape or form. Your smile is everlasting in my mind and your love is deep in my heart, forever and ever. Until I see you in heaven, you're with me here on earth deep insude me. I still ask Him why you had to leave me so early-we had so much to do. The answer still remains unanswered for me. I love you my son! You were so good to me-never an arguement or a bad word came my way from you...you are so very loved-- Today, Always and forever!! Much love, and many tears~MA!

Ben, These 5 years, which were much too short, have been 5 years I will never forget. I am so much a better person for having known you and witnessed how you always found time and energy to love all those who you would come in contact with. You are the "man" to take care of my baby. Your undying love for Mo Mo was never in doubt. I know time will heal and we will all move on, but I also know you will continue to watch over Mo Mo until there comes a time where she will find the "second best person" to care for her. May God Bless you as he welcomes you into his kingdom, where you deservedly belong. When you get a second, which knowing you is probably already taken care of, say hi to Grandpa Poochfada (to my kids, Dad to me). He will be honored to meet the man that meant so much to all of us. We love you so much and miss you more. Papa Bear
