Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone, I'll live in memory's garden, dear, with happy days we've known. In Spring I'll wait for roses red when fades the lilacs blue, in early Fall when brown leaves call, I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first and I remain for battles to be fought, Each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot. I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, though blindly I may grope, the memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope. Should you go first and I remain to finish with the scroll, No length'ning shadows shall creep in to make this life seem droll. We've known so much of happiness, we've had our cup of joy; and memory is one gift of God that death cannot destroy. Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'd have you do: walk slowly down the path of death, for soon I'll follow you. I'll want to know each step you take, that I may walk the same, for someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name. HOLLY FUNERAL HOME
