content man that ever lived and that's why I love him. He loved symphonic music, nature and sunsets. A very private person, he believed in God but not formal worship. He had his own values. He will be missed by all.

Dear May and Family, We are so sorry for your loss, please know, our thoughts and prayers are with you. Hopefully, the wonderful legacy and sweet memories he leaves with you, bring great comfort in the days ahead. We have so many wonderful memories of times spent with all of you, especially summer visits to Waupaca. You went out of your way, to make our large brood, feel genuinely welcome and ensured we had a great time. I remember Harry as a very gentle, kind, warm and funny man and can really appreciate, why you have been such good friends of mom and dad, through the years. Mom and I were reminiscing, just yesterday, about some of our fondest moments, and laughed til we cried, so thank you for that. Please send my sympathy and a special hello to Skee, I hope he and his family are enjoying a wonderful life. I will think of Harry and your family in the months ahead, sending positive energy and prayers that his physical loss, is softened by your remembrances of him and the knowledge that he will always be with you, watching over, protecting and guiding you. Love, Kris (Karstedt) Hauser

The phrase Silver Lining and name Harry Shabino go hand in hand for me. I've cared about and respected Harry and May my entire life. Harry taught me about investments, paddling a canoe, and keeping my chin up even when I didn't feel like it. He was always ok with exactly who I was - thats a rare trait that he imparted to me and I have returned to others. It saddens me that I missed his funeral - I'd like to hug May and tell their kids I enjoyed the times we spent together in the 1960's, 70's and 80's. I still have a sport coat my dad got from Harry. Thank you Shabino's for sharing your dad with me and my family when you lived in West Bend. Peace, Mark J. Karstedt
