Mario F. Camalieri

FEB 23, 1924 - NOV 8, 2009

Mario F. Camalieri, age 85 of Amherst, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, November 8, 2009, at St. Michaels Hospital in Stevens Point. He was born on February 23, 1924, to Joseph and Virginia (Lojancio) Camalieri. He married Lola Glick on October 19, 1946, in Chicago. He served in the Army during WWII. He moved to Wisconsin in 1975 and purchased an A&W restaurant, then moved to Stevens Point in 1986 to serve in the ministries of the Greater Point Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife Lola Camalieri, four sons: Cory Camalieri, David Camalieri, Mark (Karen) Camalieri, and Mario (Stacy) Camalieri; two daughters: Cynthia (Roy) Snowbank, and Marlo (Brad) Jenson. Twelve grandchildren: Erich Wallenberg, Jenny Wallenberg, Johnathan Camalieri, Kyrstyn Jenson, Ben Jenson, Danza Jenson, Samantha Jenson, Carver Jenson, Holly Camalieri, Kelsey Camalieri, Kori Camalieri, and Angelo Camalieri; and one sister Mary Aho. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and Virginia Camalieri, and his five brothers: Frank Kamely, Nello Camalieri, Michael Camalieri, Christopher Camalieri, and Catino Kamely.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, November 12, 2009, at the Wisconsin Veterans home main chapel at 11 A.M. Pastor Woody Baumgartner will officiate. Burial will be held at the Central Wisconsin Memorial Veterans Cemetery. A visitation will be held on Thursday, November 12, 2009, from 10 A.M. until the time of the service at 11 A.M.

Dear Lola, Marlo and Family, I am so sorry at the loss of your husband, father and my brother in the Lord, Mario. He was one of the finest Christian men that I have ever known. He knew how to love, show unending kindness and how to laugh and be laughed with!! I will never forget all the fun we had together in Lake Geneva. He was one of a kind, and had such a servants heart. May God give you His strength at this time and in the days and weeks and years to come, as only He can do. I loved him as my brother and friend, Love, Sharon (Leonard) Smith

God's peace and blessings to you all. Although we are not there in person, we ARE there in thought and prayers. We are sorry for your loss and grieve with you. The skies have another bright and shining star. Mario will be remembered fondly and with love. Praying you will find peace and comfort in knowing Mario is certainly with God and they are both smiling down on you all and saying,

I did not know Mario well but he was one of the most honest men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. When ever we did meet he always had good things to say and a very positive outlook on life. He will be missed.
