Oh, such a lovely lady! I will always thank her for creating such a welcoming place in the library. She introduced me to the idea of trying out an author and then reading more than just one book by that author. I can still feel how it felt to curl up with the Pearl Buck books and read my way through everything she wrote. Today I still tend to get hooked on an author and read everything by that person. Thanks to Bina Sill, I'm sure there are many prolific readers who have come out of Waupaca (or who are still here)! My sympathies to you all!

Dear Eric. Was saddened to hear of your Mother's passing. My Mom passed away about a year ago. They became good friends, because of my Mom's avid reading and your mother's love of flowers. She, like your Dad, had a passion for scouting. We were just discussing Isle Royale on Facebook (Tomaras, Fonstad, Mather, Romeis). She was a great lady who lived a good full life. My Dad just turned 94 and still lives behind the old library. Condolences from the entire Steiner Family.
