I am sending my sympathy to all of Chesterine's family.. You are in my heart today. Prayers are ascending for comfort to know her soul is now glorified in heaven. She actively walked her Christian life when ever I saw her or heard of her activities. I cherish the memories I have of her, her smile and her love of family and friends. I am thankful she was apart of my life. I'm sorry I cannot be there in person to give you my condolences.

To the family of Chettie:I am saddened and sorry to hear of Chettie's passing. The last time I saw her, with you Jane, she did not look in the best of health, so I was not completely surprised. She had her usual smile, though. I worked with her at Grayhill for a number of years, and enjoyed her. Most others enjoyed working with her, too. May God & shared good memories of her life help get you through this tough time.
