Ron and family, Our prayers have been with you all during the time of Doris' illness, and now her passing. We know that you've lost one very precious wife, mother, friend, etc.. there's just so many words to describe her. Our hearts are thankful for the many laughs we had over the years; the years she served the Lord at GNFC; and all she was to her family. You all were the highlight of her life. Her life may have been too short on this side of eternity, but she made an amazing impact in that time. We can be assured that she will be at heaven's gates welcoming you all one day with some of the best baked goods around!
