I know it has been a year but just found out of Bev's passing. My deepest sympathy to all who loved her. My husband (Chummy) passed almost to the day, this year sept. 22, 2014. We shared many happy times. Being cousins we spent a lot of time together. She honored me by being maid of honor in my wedding.

All my memories of Aunt Bev are wonderful. She loved all of us very much. She was a kind and gentle Aunt who smiled a lot, laughed, cooked the best meals, hunted with the guys, hugged great, sang awesome, told wonderful stories, acted silly at Christmas, and loved her nieces and nephews with all her heart. She loved life and God! I know she is singing with the angels. I'm grateful to have such wonderful childhood memories with a totally awesome Auntie Bev.
