I'm so sorry a summer cold prevents my attendance. Sharon wrote a poetic tribute when I retired as an interim pastor at Farmington. I included it in my book "Make Love Your Aim" and my desire was for her to read it at my funeral. Now I'm sorry I can't share it at hers. Pastor Gene Gauerke

I knew Sharon for many years through the Waupaca Christian Women's Connection (aka Waupaca Christian Women's Club when she was still very active in the group). Her wonderful uplifting, cheerful personality was one of the reasons I got so involved in the organization over the years. She was able to come to only a few of the events over the past couple of years and it was such a joy to see her smiling face and hear that happy "Hello Beej!" So sad to think I'll have to wait now until I join her in heaven before I'll get to hear and see her again. She is already missed more than words can say.

Always had alot of chuckles bowling with Sharon, and how she'd bet me a shot if I could pick up all my pins. She will be missed.
