CARL FREDRICK MAVES

AMHERST, WISCONSIN, Age 91, passed way Friday, November 6, 2015 at Bethany Homes, Waupaca, WI. Carl was born October 30, 1924 in the Township of Lanark, WI; son of the late Otto and Wilhelmina (Lutz) Maves. Carl married Elaine Swenson on May 27, 1950. They were married for 58 years. Carl lived on the family farm in the Lanark Township for 65 years. Carl enjoyed spending time with his family, farming, gardening, raising chickens, deer hunting, riding his 4-wheeler, and delivering produce from his fruit trees and garden to the neighbors. In his early years, Carl worked as an electrician and at the Amherst Junction Feed Mill, as well as farmed. Carl served on the Peace Lutheran Church council, the Town of Lanark Board as a Supervisor, and as a Fire Warden for many years.

Carl is survived by 4 Sons:

Fred (fiancée Tina Smith), Tom (Denise), Dan (friend Barb), Jon (Leah) all of Amherst

8 Grandchildren:

Adam (Jenny) of Amherst, Tara (Jeremy) Strand of Mayville, ND, Ramanda, Ellen, Jeremy, Steve, Karlee, and Makena Maves all of Amherst

4 Great-Granddaughters:

Mark Schmutzler posted:

I shall never forget Carl. His kindness and generosity was well known and Sandra and I were the recipients of both. He always gave us apples, pears and whatever else grew on the farm. My fondest memory is when I went wheeling with him out on the farm. He drove fast and I really had a hard time to stay up with him. We stopped often and he told me about his wife, the farm, the lake, hunting and his grandchildren. I will miss seeing him at church and visiting with him. I last saw Carl on Thursday, and he was tired. I shared a prayer with him. I will miss him. Mark Schmutzler
