Joyce was a very special lady who always had time to visit and share memories. It was always exciting to see and chat with her. We had to miniature Schnauzers who just adored her and her them. She was like a second mom to me. I will always hold close to my heart. So many beautiful memories occurred at the farm especially the barn where she would come done on occassions to enjoy the laughter and friendship of all who visited. May God Bless you all during this difficult time.
