God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be,
He closed his arms around you and whispered, "Come to me."
In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away,
Our hearts were almost broken you fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping, so peacefully, free from pain,

Adam was one my beloved 5 brothers. His Identical twin, my brother George and Adam used to tease me by pretending to be the other. Adam was about a half inch taller and would bend his knees a little and say he was George. I knew the trick and would try to look at his face and then his knees....I never got it right and was tortured I would give anything for that torture again. Adam was away in the Navy during my last years in high school. When he returned it took a while for us to bond again because I was now the only one living at home and was spoiled. As we grew into men with our own families Adam became my best friend. We would always do anything for each other. I had two brothers 10 and 11 years older who were like a father to me but Adam was my friend.. I loved them all but as I said Adam was my friend. Adam can get very close to a person because he is not a threat and only shows kindness. His loving wife Dawn and his children all have that love for each other...I want to thank them from my heart for loving my brother and for me to know that it was so. God BlessWith all the love I have to giveBilly Paterson (Adam's kid brother)

How do I let go of my childhood friend? You came into my life fighting and went out fighting too. You leaned on my old man's trailer one time too many when I told you not to. So, we beat each other up until we were real friends. In our last conversation, you told me you were working on your plane and would come pick me up as soon as it was fixed. I remember our moms questioning where we were always digging to. We had a plan to reach Joey Toia and his brothers on the other side of Delaware Avenue, but did we really know where we were going? Billy obediently followed along. Riding bikes. Swimming at Feller's Park. Trudging through the woods. Sixth grade graduation at School Street we yelled so loud to get our diplomas that Principal Fischer announced us as the Delaware Gang. To this day, people still know of the Delaware Gang. October 1955 at 17, I joined the Navy. You followed on your 17th birthday in March. I joined the amphibious force. You joined the aircraft fleet. We met on the streets of Barcelona. You walking in one direction and me in the opposite until I heard my name being called out — HEY HELMET, and I knew it was a voice from home. I was discharged in 1959 and you shortly after. You were my groomsman in 1961. Your travels took you far but you never forgot my birthday, and you always dropped by when you were back in Lindenhurst. How I will miss those calls. We saw how happy you were when you met Dawn, and introduced us to her as your soon to be wife. We loved Dawn the moment we met her. You were always Uncle Adam to our daughter Marie and son Craig. So many memories my dear friend. The days pass by too quickly. Love, Helmuth & Marie
