Loved my cousin Charlie, looked up to him and he had a kind soul. Loved hearing him play piano & organ, liked his laugh. The cousins from Norway send their love to Alice too, Perry said he was 9 & Charlie was 16 when they were here. He looked up to him as a kind protector, showed him around the Nelsonville countryside. Charles and I (his cousin) were great friends and playmates as children. We would make up stories, romp around his farm, and generally enjoy life. His love of Alaskan travel and new cars as well as his ability to play almost any tune on a piano, without music, are fond memories. May he Rest In Peace. Jean (Leppen) Kinsey
