Emily A. Pagel

MAR 7, 1933 - JAN 29, 2018

Emily A. Pagel, age 84 of Almond, WI passed away on Monday, January 29th at Marshfield Hospital in the Critical Care Unit with her family by her side. After a month-long treatment for a bacterial infection in her lungs, she contracted Influenza A. It proved to be too much for her respiratory system.

Emily was born March 7, 1933 in a farmhouse in the small community known as Meehan, in the Township of Plover. Her parents were Frank and Amelia (Wolosek) Hutkowski. They moved their family to farm in the Pittsville area. In 1939 they moved back to Bancroft, WI. She attended the one-room Quentin rural school for her first year, then was transferred to Bancroft Public School. It was closed in 1948 so the classes were moved to Almond Public School, where she graduated in 1951. Throughout her school years, Emily worked the summer months planting beans & cucumbers to sell at the factory in Bancroft. She also worked for a company riding a stripper for 2 weeks that harvested the blue grass seeds from the hay fields to be used for planting grass in yards. Another job she had was picking milk weed pods which were sold to the government to make parachutes. She lived by the creek along Mill Road where the pods were plentiful.

After graduation she went to work at Zwicker Knitting Mill in Waupaca where she lived in a small apartment. She loved attending polka dances where she met her husband Kenneth. They married on December 1, 1951 and enjoyed 62 years together. She loved watching sports on TV. Packers, Brewers, Olympics, and NASCAR. Her favorite driver was Dale Earnhardt Sr. She also loved her travels to Florida, Hawaii, Las Vegas, and Alaska.

She says her most treasured memories were festive family gatherings. She had 4 children, 10 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren to fill her home with love and laughter, especially playing cards and other games with them.

Emily is survived by her children: Dennis (Cindy) Pagel, Almond; Alan (Mickie)
