Jesse's love of the Lord was always evident in any undertaking he pursues. Always willing to give of himself to anyone in need . he was also a real prayer warrior for those in need and would drop to his knees right on the spot when asked to pray for someone.my prayers go out to his remaining family for the Holy Spirit to comfort you in our time of loss

I, too, remember Jesse. Though it was several years ago; his love for our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ "came through" in all he said & did! May his friends & family be comforted by the Holy Spirit with His Peace.
