My deepest sympathy to the Dorschner family. 101 is a good number, we wish we had more. Your tears are memories in motion and there is no better way to express your grief than through those sacred moments of crying.

I gave Lois communion last week Thursday. She prayed the Lord's Prayer with me and said she always tried to be nice to people. What a delightful, precious friend she was. Christie Gonwa

I had the profound pleasure and honor of getting to know Miss Lois when I worked in the Pines @ Bethany. She was warm, funny, and very kind. She loved to show me her newest animated toy, and she would always make sure to slip a Lindor chocolate into my pocket. I truly loved her, and I'm certain that the World is a tad less bright without her in it.
