Edna had such a great sense of humor. We thoroughly enjoyed her visits when she'd come into the activity room at Whispering Pines/The Lodge and sit with us while we played cards. And when she lived near Lake Emily, she always decorated her house so cute for Halloween. She was warm and friendly and always made our grandkids feel special when they trick or treated at her house. Boy will she be missed!!!

Edna was my second mom growing up in St. Francis so many years ago. I recall her welcoming voice when I appeared at the back door. She would say c'mon in Doug and offer a bottle of Black Bear soda. She had a wry smile and a hearty laugh that was absolutely delightful. I found her so easy to talk to and a good listener, which is less and less common these days. She was easy to like and easy to love and generous to a fault. I'm sure Bob has some good stories to share. I will miss you Edna, but never forget you.
