I look back at all my classes from K - college and there is not one I use everyday like my keyboarding class taught by Mrs. P. That and the love I have for Mary and Larry for raising such "good kid" is immense! Love you BP and hugs to you, Bill, and Sue! Johnny Guld

MaryAlice Pennewell We were so fortunate to visit our Sister in Law in Wautoma on my last trip back to a 65th Oshkosh H.S. Reunion. My wife Elsa and I stayed with Mary at her apartment in Wautoma. We simply had a ball going to see; the cottage on Gilbert Lake, the famous Ding Tavern with the "River Running Through It", the quaint First Spring Cemetary on Apache Rd., near Gilbert Lake where my Brother Larry was buried and Mary's Graveside Service will be held, a great gas station gift shop in Wild Rose and, one of Mary's restaurants where she enjoyed Sunday brunches near her Wautoma residence. It's always fun with you Mary. Get back to that with your hubby on the "upside" :) Forever Love Mary, Elsa & Tom Pennewell
