“ Mr. and Mrs. Sattler (and Jim and Lisa) were favorite clients at the law office where I worked for many years. I always looked forward to seeing her at the Fair. Sorry for your loss, Jim and Lisa. Prayers and God Blessings. Carolyn Schmidt

“ Our heartfelt sympathies-Jim, Lisa, Jacob, Joey and family. May you find peace and comfort during this sorrowful time. We will cherish the memories of your mother (Jim and Lisa) and grandmother (Jacob and Joe). Georgia was a dear friend to everyone she knew and always treated us like members of your family. We will cherish the memories of the times spent visiting the farm and at the fair on cattle judging day! Her beautiful hand written letters and cards will be scrapbooked to be read for years to come! Rest peacefully now, Georgia, you are eternally home with John! Love you all! Rebecca and Steve Springstroh

“ So many memories! My mom's best friend. My sister's Godmother. Her infectious laugh. Her kindness. That beautiful farm. Waking up in that beautiful farmhouse to a fluffy kitten. Georgia was an amazing, beautiful, kind and compassionate woman. She brought a world of joy to our family and will be missed. Love you Georgia! Margaret Mumm Wolff.

“ Georgia and I grew up together only one farm apart. We were great friends until I left the area. However once I started coming back to Wisconsin, we joined together like we had never parted. She had a busy life and was always ready to go somewhere to visit with relatives.

She was so happy with her family and always ready to do something with them. It is so hard to know what to say as anyone who knew Georgia knows that she was a very friendly person and always ready to chat with someone. I don't think anyone or anything ever really got Georgia very upset. She put up with many medical problems and accepted all of them.

I have not been able to drive up to Wisconsin in the past couple of years but always looked forward to her letters as she did mine. God bless you. Georgia. I am sure anyone who knew you will miss you. Love for ever, Betty Lash

“ Georgia was so glad to see us a few weeks ago! She loved to talk and tell us the news! She and Mom always checked in with each other around 4 o'clock every day when mom was still around too! Unless there was a ball game on tv then she would not call! I don't believe she ever missed sending me a birthday card every year and of course always a christmas card too! Georgia you were a small woman but had a VERY BIG HEART! We Miss YOU!
