Age 96 started his life's journey in Little Chute, WI. His family Henry and Betty Edwards and his four brothers moved a lot where his dad could find work. Bill's fondest memories growing up working on his grandmother's farm in Waushara County. Bill graduated from Menasha High School in 1942. He joined the Navy to serve his country in World War II. He was assigned to a special unit called SACO (top secret) and spent his time in China. After the war, he met and married June Feagles and started working for the city of Menasha. He would become the city treasurer for 38 years, retiring in 1985. In 1986 Bill and June moved to their cottage on Fish Lake in Waushara County.
